

Signup Lists Grow For Easter Parade

Registrations for the Recreation Department's Easter Baby Parade in El Prado Park have been pouring in since registrations opened on Monday. Recreation spokesmen report.

The event will start Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the park, which is located between Arlington and Cravens Aves. on El Prado. Registrations will be accepted up to 2:30 Sunday, but to avoid a last-minute rush parents should sign up their babies prior to Sunday. More than 100 prizes have been donated by Torrance Merchants for the contest.

At 3:30 p.m., the King and Queen of the Baby Division (ages 23 months and younger) and King and Queen of the Tiny Tykes Division (two to four years of age) will be chosen. Selection of the King and Queen in each division will be based on poise, personality, health, costume, etc.

How to Register
To register a child, parents should contact the Recreation Office, 1347 El Prado, FA 8-4108, and supply the following information: parents' name and address, child's name, sex, birth date and age on April 18, 1954. Prizes will be awarded in the following classifications in the Baby Division:
The youngest, the fattest, the most outstanding red hair, the most outstanding blue eyes, the longest eyelashes, and the most outstanding twins.

The King and Queen of Baby Week, selected to reign over Baby Week, May 1 to May 8, will also be determined from among all the contestants in the Baby Division. The Tiny Tykes Division will feature the following classifications: (for boys) most debonaire, brightest, flashiest Easter tie, and man of distinction. (For girls) daintiest, prettiest Easter bonnet, most ruffles. (For boys and girls) best home-made costume, most attractively tailored costume, most attractively matched costume, and most attractive twins. The King and Queen of Spring will be selected to rule over the event from among the entrants in the Tiny Tykes Division.

Camino Teacher Named to Council

Newest member of the California State Education Council is Richard Haley, mathematics instructor at El Camino College.

Haley was elected to his new post April 1 by the teachers of the ten districts in Los Angeles County. The State Education Council is an affiliate of the California Teachers Association.

Purpose of the Council is to concern itself with youth activities, moral and spiritual values, legislation, finances, and anything that has to do with the general well-being of students.

Before coming to El Camino, Haley taught in the Burbank secondary schools and in the Merced elementary schools. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree at Memphis State College, and his Master's degree at the University of Southern California. He has taught at El Camino for six-and-one-half years.

El Camino Throws Facilities Open For All To Use

Fulfilling its obligation to Los Angeles county for the 30 acres of land it occupies, El Camino College facilities are constantly being used by organizations in surrounding communities. The county presented the land to the college with the guarantee that its recreational facilities would be made available to those who wish to use them, and almost everyone from the National Hot Rod Association to the Southern California Fencers Association has taken advantage of the offer.

The gymnasium, football stadium, baseball field, running track, and tennis courts are also open to the public. Reservations for dates on the football field have to be requested six months in advance, with Mira Costa and Gardena High Schools, and Pepperdine College using the stadium. Two to three months are required for reservations on other parts of the campus. In the future, the college will also have an auditorium for outside use.
